EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Carry Brooks on May 26, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 2, "sadi" was replaced with "said".

In claim 1, line 8, "exchange" was replaced with "exchanger".

In claim 13, line 3, "sadi" was replaced with "said".

In claim 14, line 2, "said" was inserted after "wherein".

In claim 14, line 3, "sear" was replaced with "said".

In claim 17, line 1, "sadi" was replaced with "said".

EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the instant claims are allowable over the prior art of record, because the prior art is silent to a fuel cell system comprising: a cooling fan adapted to direct a cooling air through a heat exchanger; an air branching device adapted to branch off at least part of the cooling air; a duct for receiving the branched-off air; wherein the heat exchanger is positioned adjacent said fan so that cooling air produced by the fan flows first through the heat exchanger and then, into the fuel cells.

Art Unit: 1746

The prior art, such as Rennfeld et al., U.S. Patent 5,537,956, teaches a coolant circuit comprising a cooling fan 22 that directs cooling air through heat exchanger 10, and subsequently through air branching device (25,24), that delivers said air to a passenger compartment or discharges said air to the environment. The reference is silent to an air branching device adapted to branch of at least part of the cooling air so that it flows first through the heat exchanger and thereafter into the fuel cells. Therefore, the instant claims are patentably distinct from Rennfeld.

CONCLUSIONS

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
